

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1989

Section 14(1)(b) and (3)

SUMMARY OF AFFAIRS of the TRANSPORT INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION December 2008

SECTION 1- POLICY DOCUMENTS

The Transport Infrastructure Development Corporation (TIDC) has the following policy documents available to the public from the Freedom of Information (FOI) Officer:

- Code of Conduct
- Environmental Policy
- Fraud and Corruption Prevention Policy
- Probity Policy
- Safety Policy

The nature of TIDC projects involves the preparation of many other categories of documents, including construction management plans, design management plans, urban design and landscaping plans, environmental management plans and Reviews of Environmental Factors. Project progress updates may be accessed in several ways, including free access via TIDC's website: www.tidc.nsw.gov.au.

SECTION 2-STATEMENT OF AFFAIRS

TIDC is a State Owned Corporation established on 1 January 2004 under the Transport Administration Act 1988. TIDC's purpose is to develop major railway systems and other major transport projects in an efficient, effective and financially responsible manner.

TIDC's latest Statement of Affairs is included in its 2008 Annual Report, also available on the website: www.tidc.nsw.gov.au.

SECTION 3- CONTACT ARRANGEMENTS

Requests under the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (NSW) for access to TIDC records or documents should be made as follows:

1. Put your request in writing.
2. Forward your request, the appropriate fee and your postal address to TIDC at the address below.

Details of procedures, fees and fee reductions may be obtained from by calling TIDC's FOI Officer.

The FOI Officer may be contacted at:

The Freedom of Information Officer
Transport Infrastructure Development Corporation
Level 7, Tower A, Zenith Centre
821-823 Pacific Highway
Chatswood NSW 2067
Telephone: 02 9200 0200

Office hours are between 8.30am and 5.30pm Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays). Members of the public seeking access to documents are asked to telephone the FOI Officer before visiting, as the documents may be available on the TIDC website, by mail, free of charge or for a small fee.